

Nottingham.

Robert Brown	John Kinsey	Silas Wagner
Ispe Pugh	Joseph Smith	Samuel Hopkins, of N.H.
James Jackson	Joshua Brown	John Sharp
Thomas Waring	Jeremiah Brown	Joshua Husband

who were present except eleven, for the absence of some of whom reasons were furnished.

Epistles of correspondence from all the Yearly Meetings on this continent, except from that held in Philadelphia, were received and read to edification.

The following friends were appointed to draft Epays of Epistles to the Yearly Meetings with which this corresponds and report them to a future sitting: Edward Stabler, Philip E. Thomas, Asa Moore, Gerard T. Hopkins, John Talbot, John Sewell, John Kinsey, Thomas Ellicott, Samuel Thomas, John Livingston, William Kenworthy, Joel Garretson, Hugh Calderston, Edward Walker, and George Wilson.

The representatives were directed to confer together at the close of the present sitting in order to propose at the opening of the next, two Friends to serve the meeting as clerk & assistant.

Adjourned to three o'clock this afternoon.

Pursuant to adjournment Friends assembled. William Riley on behalf of the Representatives reported that they had conferred together and agreed to propose John Canney for clerk and Philip E. Thomas for assistant, with which the meeting concurred and appointed them to the service.

X Certificates and minutes for several brethren and sisters, attending from within the limits of other Yearly Meetings, were read; and William Riley, William Kenworthy and James Moore appointed to unite with a committee of Women Friends, to prepare an essay of an endowment, to be produced at a future sitting.

Gerard T. Hopkins and Edward Stabler, were appointed to prepare an essay of a certificate, for our friend William Rickman, from England, who attended our last Yearly Meeting, and is again acceptably with us, and produce it to a future sitting.

Gerard Brooke, (aleb Bentley), Silas Hibbard, Ispe Wickersham, Bernard Taylor, Reuben Schooley, James Jackson, Joshua Husband, Thomas Scott, John Moore, Edward Walker, & Robert Brown were appointed to settle the treasurer's account, ascertain the state of the stock; and propose the sum necessary to be raised for the ensuing year, with a new rate of apportionment on the several quarters, and directed to report to a future sitting.

The Committee appointed to attend the opening of Nottingham Quarterly Meeting, reported that most of them had attended to the service, and that the meeting was opened and held agreeably to the direction of this meeting.

The Committee appointed to revise and record the minutes, reported that the service had been performed and on their request to be released, the following friends were appointed to the service for the ensuing year: Evan Thomas Jr., John Livingston, Ezra Gillingham and William Kenworthy.