

Fairhill Boarding School which was not united with and as there is still a deficiency in the necessary Funds to discharge the claims upon the Institution, Quarterly meetings were desired to direct subscriptions to be opened within their respective limits, in order to raise the Balance of the sum directed last year to be collected; and also to extend care towards the collection of the former subscriptions which remain unpaid, and to forward the sums that may be received to the Treasurer of the School Committee. Quarterly Meetings were further desired to report of their care herein to the Meeting next year.

Under an impressive consideration of the very great importance of this Institution to the future welfare of Society, as presenting an advantages opportunity for a guarded education of our Youth, our Members were affectionately desired to furnish such further encouragement to the School as they may severally be enabled to render, by sending their children thither for education.

The Meeting having taken into consideration the printing of our New Code of Discipline as now revised, concluded to refer its publication to the Meeting for Sufferings with directions that as many copies thereof be printed as under the influence of best wisdom may be considered ~~needed~~ necessary for the uses of the Yearly Meeting. That Meeting was directed when in readiness to transmit a sufficient number to each of our several Quarterly Meetings for their respective occasions, and the Clerk was directed to furnish the Meeting for Sufferings with a copy of this minute and of the Discipline as revised by this Meeting.

Having during the several sittings of this ~~meeting~~ Yearly Meeting been graciously favored with a comfortable evidence of the renewed extensions of Divine favor, enabling us with condescension and brotherly harmony to transact the various concerns which have engaged our deliberation the Meeting under a grateful sense thereof concluded; to meet again at the time appointed in the 10th month next if so permitted.
