

accounts and find that from the balance now in hands, with what will be paid in during the sitting of the yearly Meeting from the contributions from the Quarters, and old subscriptions there will be nearly or quite sufficient to liquidate the debts against the committee for the buildings and improvements leaving the balance to be provided for of $1131 ³²/₁₀₀.

In thus placing before the yearly Meeting the foregoing accounts of the situation of the boarding school, the committee would have been gratified if they could have suggested the means of relieving the institution from the difficulties with which it is embarrassed, but finding themselves unable to do this they have concluded to submit this important and interesting subject to its solid deliberations and judgment.

The present committee having remained under this appointment several ^{years}, feel free to suggest to the yearly Meeting the propriety of a new appointment to the service and perhaps one less numerous than the present might be equally useful.

The committee on the Pasture Lot produced the following report, which was concurred with, and they were left at liberty to call upon the Treasurer for the amount stated to be necessary for the ensuing year to wit.

To the Yearly Meeting now sitting

We of the committee who have the care of the pasture Lot Report, that we have attended to the duties of our appointment, and have the last year cultivated, manured and set with grass about seven acres, which promises to produce well next year, and are united in the opinion that we shall have occasion for $150 for the improvement of another portion of Land the ensuing year, all which we submit to the Meeting
