

Noting that Thomas Wilson had appealed from the judgment of that meeting in his case, and the appellant being now present and also most of the friends named by the Quarterly Meeting to attend this meeting on its behalf, and he having informed that he continues to prosecute his appeal, Benjamin Morris, John Russell, Thomas Leach, Jesse Wickham, Caleb Ogden, Isaac Stier, Joshua Lupton, George Drinker, William Nicholls, Samuel Hutchinson, Jesse Pugh, Robert Clendinning, James Jackson, Moses Gillingham and Jeremiah Brown were appointed to examine the minutes and proceedings in the case, hear the allegations of the appellant and of the friends appointed on behalf of the Quarterly Meeting, and report their judgment thereon to a future sitting.

It having appeared by the report from Baltimore Quarterly Meeting that David M. Brown had appealed from the judgment of that meeting in his case, and the appellant being now present and also most of the friends named by the Quarterly Meeting to attend this meeting on its behalf, and he having informed that he continues to prosecute his appeal, Benjamin Morris, John Russell, Thomas Leach, Jesse Wickham, Caleb Ogden, Isaac Stier, Joshua Lupton, George Drinker, William Nicholls, Samuel Hutchinson, Jesse Pugh, Robert Clendinning, James Jackson, Moses Gillingham and Jeremiah Brown were appointed to examine the minutes and proceedings in the case, hear the allegations of the appellant and of the friends appointed on behalf of the Quarterly Meeting, and report their judgment thereon to a future sitting.

John Jewell and Roger Brooke were appointed to unite with women friends in preparing an essay of endorsement to be placed upon the minutes and certificates of those brethren and sisters who have attended this meeting from within the limits of other Yearly Meetings.

Then adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

28th of month and third of the week. Near the time adjourned to, friends assembled.

The meeting having entered upon the consideration of the state of society as exhibited in the answers to the queries brought up from our several Quarterly Meetings, and having proceeded as far as the fourth answer inclusive, adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

According to adjournment friends again assembled.

The consideration of the state of society having been resumed and the meeting having proceeded to the end of the queries, the following summary was agreed upon, as containing nearly the substance of the answers brought up from our several quarterly meetings, to wit:

Ans. 1. All our meetings have been held and attended by most of the members on first day mornings — other meetings both for worship and discipline appear to have been neglected by many. Unbecoming behaviour therein has been generally avoided, except some instances of sleeping; on account of which one report mentions some care has been extended. The hour of meeting appears to have been nearly observed.

Ans. 2. Many friends appear careful to maintain love towards each other becoming our Christian profession; tale-bearing and detraction are generally discouraged, and when differences have
