The Committee appointed at a former sitting to take into consideration the report from the standing Committee on the Fair Hill Boarding School, and to report their prospect of the measures that may appear proper for this meeting to take, in relation to this establishment under its present circumstances, produced the following report, which was united with and the Clerk was directed to forward a copy thereof and of this minute to our several Quarterly Meetings, to wit,

To the Yearly Meeting now sitting.

We of the Committee appointed at a former sitting, to consider the present situation and circumstances of the Fair Hill Boarding School and to offer for the consideration of the Yearly Meeting such propositions as might appear to them most likely to relieve it from its present embarrassments having had a conference together have agreed to propose that the committee to whom is confided the care of the school be permitted to increase it by the admission of a limited number of scholars who have not a right in membership with friends sufficient to cover the current expenses of the ensuing year. Those who are admitted into the school under this conclusion to be subject in all respects to its discipline and to such regulations as the Committee may deem expedient to adopt.

In reference to the payment of the balance now due from the institution it is our prospect that a subscription be now opened amongst our members under the direction of the Yearly Meeting with a view to obtain the amount now due from the institution believing, that many of our members feel a lively interest therein and will willingly contribute for its relief. If however the whole amount is not obtained by the subscription, it is our prospect that the Committee be authorized to borrow the balance. We also suggest the expediency and propriety of enjoining Quarterly and Monthly meetings to collect such of the original subscriptions which remain unpaid and which upon special consideration of those meetings shall be directed to be collected and
