30th of 10 Mo 1823.

The following friends were appointed to open subscriptions at the close of the present sitting for the purpose of receiving donations to be applied to the relief of the Fair Hill Boarding School from its present pecuniary embarrassment; and our members were affectionately exhorted to exercise a liberality on the occasion worthy of the deeply interesting object which they are now called upon to sustain.

Then adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Near the time appointed friends again assembled.

The meeting was informed that there had been subscribed by our members since last sitting the sum of $308⁰⁰ for the purposes of the Fair Hill Boarding School which was directed to be collected and paid over to the Treasurer of that Institution.

John Harris on behalf of the friends appointed at a former sitting to superintend the printing of the London general Epistle reported that the service had been attended to, and that the number directed to be printed was now ready. The representatives were directed to take charge of the distribution of them amongst our several Quarterly meetings in the usual proportions.

The Committee appointed to prepare essays of Epistles to the several Yearly Meetings with which this corresponds, now produced them, they were read & corrected: the Clerk was desired to transcribe sign and forward them.

With feelings of reverent thankfulness for the degree of divine favour which has been graciously afforded throughout the several sittings of this Yearly Meeting it concluded. To meet again at the usual time next year if so permitted.
