

and lay before this meeting what might open to their view as the best course to be adopted in reference to the whole concern, produced the following report, which being deliberately considered was accepted, and the Committee which now stands appointed to the care of that Institution was authorised and directed to proceed accordingly, and Quarterly meetings were desired to raise the sum of $600 in addition to the amount already required and forward the same to the Treasurer in the usual proportions. to wit

To the Yearly Meeting now sitting.

The Committee to whom was referred the report of the general Committee of the Fair Hill boarding school. Report, that upon solid deliberation they have united in the conclusion that under existing circumstances they believe it right that the General Committee to whom has been confided the care of the Institution be instructed to discontinue the School as soon as in their judgment it may be deemed expedient, and that they also exercise their discretion in winding up the concern upon the best terms that the nature of the case will admit of.

They further recommend that the Treasurer be directed to pay from the Yearly Meeting stock now in his hands, into the hands of the Treasurer of the School Committee the sum of Five hundred dollars towards the discharge of the debts due from the Institution, and that the several Quarterly Meetings be directed to raise the further sum of six hundred dollars in their several proportions to be applied to the same object.

Which we submit to the meeting.

Signed on behalf of the Committee of men and women friends

By
3^d of 11 month 1825.

Rebecca Procter Jeremiah Brown
Judith Preston Isaac Tyson

The Committee appointed at a former sitting to prepare an essay of endorsement to be placed upon the minutes & certificates of our brethren and sisters who may have attended this meeting from within the limits of other yearly meetings produced one which was approved and directed to be endorsed accordingly and signed by the Clerk on behalf of this meeting.

Having been favoured to bring to a satisfactory close the several subjects which have engaged our deliberations, the meeting concluded, To meet again at the usual time next year if so permitted.