

to unite with Women Friends, in preparing an Essay of Endorsement, to be placed upon the Minutes and Certificates of our Brethren and Sisters who may have attended this Meeting from within the limits of other Yearly Meetings on this Continent, produced one, which was approved, and directed to be endorsed accordingly, and signed by the Clerk on behalf of this Meeting.

The following report was received from the Standing Committee on the Fair-Hill Boarding School, which was accepted, and the Committee was continued to Service-towing.

To the Yearly Meeting now sitting.

The Standing Committee continued last year, to attend to the settlement of the concern of the Fair-Hill Boarding School, Report, that a part of the outstanding debts have been collected; which, with the amount received from the Treasurer of the Yearly Meeting, has enabled them to discharge all the claims against the Institution, except one. An examination of the present state of the concern, it appears likely the Committee will be able to complete the Service confided to them the ensuing year. All which is submitted.

10 mo: 31, 1827. Signed by direction of the Committee. Isaac Tyson, Clerk.

The Committee appointed at a former sitting to prepare Essays of Epistles, so far as way might open, to the several Yearly Meetings with which this corresponds, now produced them. They were read & approved. The Clerk was directed to transcribe and forward them.

Having been favoured to bring to a satisfactory conclusion the various weighty concerns which have claimed our deliberation, The Meeting, under a grateful sense of the renewed extension of Divine Favour, at this time, concluded - To meet again at the usual time next year, if so permitted.
