

upon their desolating consequences, are withdrawing from the free use of them. A lively concern was also felt that we may faithfully maintain our ancient and well known Testimony against a Reviling Ministry; our predecessors were engaged through deep suffering to support this Testimony and it is firmly believed that no less obligation devolves upon us at the present time, than rested on them.

The following friends were appointed to propose to a future sitting the names of suitable friends to represent this Meeting in the Meeting for sufferings to wit Amos Smith Joseph Davenport John Gillingham, Joseph Trimble Caleb Ogburn John Tabott, Abel Russell Willing Grist Isaac Ridgden Bernard Taylor Isaac P. Mier Abijah Lanny, Thomas Bradley Joseph Stubbs Samuel Hopkins & William Worthington.
