

Saml. M. Cooke, Isaac Walker, Aaron Hibbard, David Pany, and Asa Jones.-

Then adjourned to three o'clock to-morrow afternoon.-

The 30th. of the month and 4th. of the week.- Pursuant to adjournment friends again assembled.-

The friends appointed at a former sitting to unite with women friends in preparing an essay of endorsement to be placed upon the minutes and certificates of brethren and sisters who have attended this meeting from within the limits of other Yearly Meetings, reported one which was approved, and the clerk was directed to endorse and sign the same on behalf of this meeting.-

The friends appointed at a former sitting to prepare essays of epistles to the several yearly meetings with which this corresponds now produced one embracing the substance of the exercises of this meeting, addressed to the yearly meeting of New York, Philadelphia, Ohio, and Indiana respectively, also one addressed to the New yearly meeting to be called the Tennessee Yearly Meeting of Friends, which being approved, the clerk was directed to transcribe, sign and forward them on behalf of this meeting.-

The standing committee on the Fair Hill Bonding School property, produced the following report, which being read was approved, viz: The committee on the Fair Hill Bonding School property, Report, that the property is in the care of the same person and under the same circumstances as when we reported last year on behalf of the committee Roger Brooke.-

The committee on the Treasurer's account produced the following report, which being read was accepted,

To the Yearly Meeting now sitting.-

We the committee appointed to examine and adjust the Treasurer's account, report that we have performed that service, and find a balance in his hands of six hundred and sixty nine dollars and thirty six cents; still subject to a call for one hundred and seventy three dollars and eighty eight cents from the standing committees on the Pasture Lot, the quotas from the several quotas being all paid in.- It is the judgement of the committee that it will not be necessary to raise any money for the ensuing year.
All which are submit to the meeting.-

Baltimore. 10mo. 29th 1833.

Allen Hibbard

With feelings of reverent thankfulness for the degree of divine favor which has been graciously afforded throughout the several sittings of this ^{yearly} meeting, it concluded.- To convene again at the usual time next year if so permitted.-

William Habley, Clerk
