"To the Yearly Meeting now sitting

"The Committee appointed last year, authorised to receive voluntary subscriptions for refitting the Establishment at Fair Hill for the purposes of a Girls' School, suited to the graded education of the children of Friends. Report, that they opened subscriptions for this subject in accordance with their appointment but the sum subscribed was very small, and entirely inadequate to the object desired, and no way has opened to them to take any measures for promoting the views of Friends on this interesting subject. "To the Yearly Meeting now sitting
The Standing Committee on the Fair Hill Property report, that with a view to affording an opportunity for occupying the property for the purposes of a school, it has not been placed under rent until since it has ascertained that it could not be so occupied at present; consequently nothing has been received from it since our last report and probably will not be earlier than the 4th month next, until which time it is now rented. There are circumstances existing in relation to the present situation of the Property, that induce us to propose to the Yearly Meeting the appointment of a committee to consider and report to the Yearly Meeting their judgment as regards the future disposition of the Property.

"By direction and on behalf of the Committee

Thomas P. Stabler"
