

All our meetings have been held except Indian Spring Preparative within the limits of Baltimore quarter, from which there was no report to the last Quarterly Meeting, and one mid-week meeting, Warrington. - Those held on W. day mornings have generally been attended by the most of the members belonging to them, but those on W. day afternoons, in the middle of the week and for Discipline have been much neglected; Unbecoming behaviour in meeting has been mostly avoided, and the hours of meeting have been nearly observed.

2d. Answer.

It appears that Friends have generally maintained love towards each other becoming, on christian profession, slandering and detraction have been mostly discouraged, and when differences have appeared care has generally been taken to end them. -

3d. Answer.

Many friends endeavour by example and precept to educate their children and those under their care, in plainness of speech, deportment and apparel, to guard them against reading pernicious books, and from the corrupt conversation of the world, and to encourage them to read the Holy Scriptures. -

4th. Answer.

Our testimony against the improper use of distilled spirits liquors, appears to have been generally maintained, frequenting taverns and attending places of diversion generally avoided, and moderation of temperance mostly observed. -

5th. Answer.

The necessities of the poor and the circumstances of those who have appeared likely to require aid have been inspected and relieved, they have been advised and assisted in such employments as they have been capable of, and the school education of their children has been provided for. -

6th. Answer.

Friends generally have appeared to maintain our testimony against a hiring ministry, oaths, military services, clauder-line trade, prize goods and lotteries. -

7th. Answer. -

Friends have generally been careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances & to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage; they have been generally just in their dealings and punctual in complying with their engagements, and where reasonable grounds for fear has been given in these respects care appears to have been extended.

8th. Answer. -

Our testimony against slavery appears to have been generally maintained, those of the African race in Friends families have been provided for, and some care has been taken to instruct them in useful learnings. -

9th. Answer.

Care has been generally taken to deal with offenders answerably to the query. -

10th. Answer.

Many Willis an elder & member of York Monthly and particular meeting, departed this life on the 26th. of the 4th.
month