

proposed to be borne by this meeting. - viz:

"To the Yearly Meeting now sitting,

"The Committee appointed at a former sitting on the subject of this house and property as brought up in the proceedings of the Meeting for Sufferings, Report, that they have examined the subject, referred to them, and are of opinion that the Yearly Meeting should pay the expense attached to this property for building the wall on the west line of the lot, and one half of the expense of a new roof on the house, friends of Baltimore paying the other half. -

"The estimated expense of the wall by the Yearly Meeting is $138.26

"The estimated expense of the roof by the Yearly Meeting is 300.00

"Signed on behalf of the committee

"Balt 10 Nov. 29: 1839

"Benjamin Halliwell

The Standing Committee on the Pasture lot produced the following Report, which being read was approved, and the Committee were continued to the Source viz:

"To the Yearly Meeting now sitting

"The Committee on the Pasture Lot, Report, that for some time past we have found some difficulty in getting the same managed to best advantage, without affording it more attention than was convenient for the Exec. Committee, we therefore during the last summer, rented the pasture out to the Wm. of the 9th. month, and owing to the fall being very dry there was not sufficient pasturage for the horses, yet they have been plentifully supplied with other food. The Committee will endeavor in future to leave the property in a better state, all which "they submit to the meeting"

"Thomas Matthews, David Preston"

"Robert Wickham Samuel Register"

"Dundas Scott"

The Committee appointed at a former sitting on the subject of the Treasurer's accounts produced the following report which being read was satisfactory. Philip E. Thomas was appointed Treasurer to this meeting, and the Quarterly Meetings were requested to forward to him in season, their respective proportions of the sum to be raised for the use of this meeting.

"To the Yearly Meeting now sitting

"The Committee appointed to examine and settle the Treasurer's accounts, to recommend the sum necessary to be raised for the ensuing year, and to propose the name of a friend to serve as Treasurer, Report, that they have examined the accounts and vouchers of the late Treasurer, and find there is a balance in his favor of 31 cents. - They further report, that the Yearly Meeting's Treasurer is subject to be called upon by the Committee on the Pasture Lot for $110⁴/₁₀, balance of appropriations not yet taken up, and by the Committee on the Fair Hill property for a balance of twenty two dollars, thirty one cents. The Committee are of opinion that it will be right for the Yearly Meeting to disburse the sum of seven hundred dollars to be raised in the ensuing year, and that it should be paid into the hands of the Treasurer as soon as practicable. The Committee unite in proposing the name of Philip E. Thomas as Treasurer, which was submitted by the meeting. M. Sheppard, Matthew Smith"