

of weighty deliberation, have agreed to report, that it is our judgment the time has not yet come when it would be right to establish the proposed meeting; which we submit to the meeting).

Signed on behalf of the committee,

Philip E. Thomas,

Susanna Jewett,

10th month, 29th, 1844.

Which was united with, and the clerk directed to furnish Centu Quarterly Meeting with a copy of this minute.

The committee appointed to examine and adjust the Treasurer's account, reported as follows:-

To the Yearly Meeting, now sitting:

The committee appointed to examine and adjust the treasurer's account, and propose the name of a friend to serve as treasurer, Report, That they have examined the accounts of the present treasurer, and find all the vouchers correct: The balance now in his hands, is eighty-five dollars and sixty-two cents, - the quotas from all the Quarters being paid in. They propose that the sum of three hundred dollars, be raised for the use of the Yearly Meeting the ensuing year: - and they agree to nominate Richard Plummer as treasurer of this meeting: which we submit to the meeting.

Signed on behalf of the Committee,

Benjamin P. Moore,

Richard H. Townsend,

Baltimore 10th mo. 29th 1844.

Which was approved, Richard Plummer appointed treasurer, and our several quarterly meetings directed to forward their several quotas thereof, to the treasurer of this meeting at as early a period as practicable.

The standing committee having charge of the Fair Hill property, produced the following report; viz:-

To the Yearly Meeting, now sitting:

The standing committee to whom has been confided the care of the Fair Hill property, report, it remains in charge of the same friends as at the time of our last Yearly Meeting, and the committee are satisfied with the care that is taken of it. The school is at present suspended, but the committee are informed by these friends that they have a prospect of its being resumed at an early period.

Signed, William E. Bartlett,

Benj. Hallowell, Roger Brooke,

Mary Gillingham, Tho. P. Stabler,

Deborah H. Stabler, John Gillingham,

Elizabeth P. Stabler, Philip E. Thomas,

Baltimore 10th mo. 29th, 1844.

and Ann. M. Stabler.

Which was accepted and the committee continued.

The committee appointed to prepare essays of epistles, as may open, to the other Yearly Meetings with which we correspond, reported essays embodying the minute relating to the exercises of this meeting; which was approved, and the clerk was directed to transcribe and forward them to the Yearly Meetings of Philadelphia, New York, Genesee, Ohio, and Indiana respectively.

The clerks were directed to have 2000 copies of the extracts from the minutes of this meeting, published for distribution amongst our members.

With feelings of ardent thankfulness for the degree of Divine