

children which our heavenly father has committed to their care. - The important concerns of attending our religious meetings and performing all our duties, both in regard to the author of our lives and our fellow beings, would here find their perfect fulfilment.

Then adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

30th. of the month and 5th. of the week:

Pursuant to adjournment friends assembled.

The committee appointed to prepare essays of Epistles, as was should open, to the several Yearly Meetings with which we correspond, reported an essay embracing the minute of this meeting in relation to the state of Society, which being approved the clerk was directed to transcribe, sign, and forward it to the Yearly Meetings of New York, Philadelphia, Ohio, Indiana & Tennessee respectively.

The committee having charge of the Fair Hill property reported - "That in accordance with the prospect entertained last year, the school has been again opened, and under the present arrangement, we believe has a claim upon the confidence and patronage of friends, and if suitably supported offers an opportunity to our members to obtain for their children the advantages of a select and guarded education."

Signed - Philip E. Thomas Eliza Mausk
 John Gillingham Mary Hargraves
 Thos. J. Stabler Elizabeth Stabler
 Roger Brooke and
 Mary Gillingham Deborah H. Stabler,

10th mo 30 1845

copy - The following communication was received from the representatives now in attendance upon this Yearly Meeting, viz: -

"At a meeting of the representatives now in attendance on the Yearly Meeting, the subject of making some addition to the meeting house for the accommodation of the Yearly Meeting was taken into consideration, and after a due time of deliberation it was concluded to recommend the subject to the judgment of the Yearly Meeting. - William Stabler and Mary Hargraves were required to sign this minute on behalf of the Representatives."

Signed - William Stabler
 Mary Hargraves

"Batts 10th mo 29 1845."

Which after being considered was referred to the meeting for sufferings, who were instructed to take the subject into their consideration, and report their judgment thereon to our next Yearly Meeting. The clerk was directed to furnish that meeting with a copy of this minute.

In grateful acknowledgement of the evidence afforded of Divine regard to us during the several sittings of this Yearly Meeting, it concluded to meet again at the usual time next year if so permitted.

(Signed) Thomas P. Stabler,
 Clerk,