

Benjamin Ferris, Edward H. Stabler, Roger Brooke, Isaac Walker, Joseph Nicholas Underwood, William Ellis, Joshua Matthews, John Daboll, William Stabler, and Joseph Thomas, were appointed to prepare essays of Epistles, as they may open, in the usual manner, to the Yearly Meetings with which we are in correspondence, and are directed to report to a future sitting.

The Representatives were directed to confer together at the close of this sitting, and propose to our next, the names of suitable friends to serve as Clerk and assistant Clerk.

Then adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Pursuant to adjournment Friends assembled.

Information was received by the Report from Baltimore Quarterly Meeting, that the time of holding that meeting of business, when held at Sandy Spring, and Gunpowder, had been changed to 10 o'clock in the forenoon: and that the time of holding Little Hall's Meeting, both for worship and discipline, had been changed from 11 to 10 o'clock in the forenoon, from the first of the fourth month to the first of the 10th month inclusive: - also that the name of Indian Spring Monthly Meeting had been changed to that of Sandy Spring.

Phineas Jemmy, on behalf of the Representatives, reported that he had been instructed to report the names of Thomas P. Stabler for Clerk, and William Stabler for assistant Clerk, which was united with by the meeting and they appointed to the service.

The minutes of the meeting for Sufferings were read, and were satisfactory: And the Memorials therein referred to, concerning our deceased friends, Judith Preston and Deborah Stabler, after being considered were approved and directed to be returned to the meeting for Sufferings to be recorded, and the Clerks were directed to have them printed in connexion with the Extracts, for circulation amongst our members.

The subject contained in the proceedings of the Meeting for Sufferings, as read, concerning the proposed improvement in this meeting house, was referred again to that meeting for such further attention as it may require to effect the object proposed.

The following report was received from the Standing Committee on Indian Concerns, which was satisfactory, to wit: -

To the Yearly Meeting, now sitting:

In accordance with the conclusions expressed in their last Report, the Committee on Indian Concerns have, in conjunction with the committees of the other Yearly Meetings with whom we are associated, confined their attention within the past year, more particularly towards the care and support of the Manual Labor School, established at Cattaraugus, for the instruction of the
