

"The committee appointed to examine and adjust the Treasurer's account, Report, that they have attended to their duties; and find his payments sustained by proper vouchers. They find in his hands a balance of $108.42. the quotas from the Quarterly Meetings being all paid in. They propose that the sum of three hundred dollars be raised by the meeting for its use during the ensuing year, and that Richard Plummer be appointed Treasurer to the Yearly Meeting."

"Signed on behalf of the committee,"

"Jacob Greist."

Baltimore 10th mo 28. 1847.

Which was satisfactory to the meeting, and our Quarterly Meetings were requested to forward the amount proposed, in the usual ratio, as early as convenient.

"The standing committee having charge of the Fair Hill property, offered the following report, to wit:-

The committee in charge of the Fair Hill property, Report, that the establishment is nearly in the same condition it was last year. There has been a small day school continued during the summer. The friends in charge of the property have been, and continue to be prepared to receive boarding scholars should any offer to come."

Signed,

Which was accepted, and the committee continued.

The committee appointed to prepare essays of Epistles, as way might open, to the several Yearly Meetings with which we correspond, now produced one embodying the exercises of this meeting, on the state of Society, addressed to each of those Yearly Meetings respectively; to wit:-

"From our Yearly Meeting, &c."

"To the next Yearly Meeting of Friends to be held at —

"Dear Friends:"

"Under the influence of that love which unites us together in the bonds of religious fellowship, we again address you, and acknowledge the receipt at this time of your acceptable Epistle, which has been read in this meeting to our comfort and encouragement."

This meeting was introduced into a solemn and interesting ~~exercise~~ exercise on the state of Society, during which the flowings of Divine Love were felt to comfort and instruct us.

Our queries were shewn to embrace many Christian testimonies, and in the reading and answering, of them Friends were tenderly urged to make a solemn individual inquiry, how far they were maintaining their true spirit. They would thus be preserved, in a state of lively attention to the concerns of Society, and, haply, receive a renewed qualification for rightly performing the important duties of life, and to wait upon, and worship God in the spirit of holiness."

The assembling ourselves for worship, offering our bodies a living sacrifice, was earnestly recommended, and we were renew.
