

to be forwarded in our report to the Yearly Meeting for its judgment and approbation. (The proposed Yearly Meeting to be held at the time and places mentioned in a former request) which are as follows:

1st. The Yearly Meeting to be called Centre Yearly Meeting of Friends in Pennsylvania.

2nd. The Yearly Meeting to be regulated by the Discipline of Philadelphia or Baltimore.

3rd. To have power to correspond with all other Yearly Meetings in the usual forms of Epistle.

4th. It will address an Epistle to Philadelphia or Baltimore Yearly Meetings detailing a general account of the state of Society within its limits.

5th. The members of this Yearly Meeting to have the rights and privileges in the Yearly Meeting to which they may be attached, that is common for members of a Quarterly Meeting sending four or more representatives to said meeting; and this meeting may originate proposals for alterations of Discipline of Society as at present.

6th. It shall have power to appoint a representative committee or meeting for sufferings, to attend to such business in the recess of the Yearly Meeting as may concern the welfare of Society, but shall not revise nor publish new works wherein the doctrines of the Society is set forth, without first laying the subject before the representative committee or meeting for sufferings of Philadelphia or Baltimore.

This committee may open a correspondence with like com.

mittees of other Yearly Meetings.

7th. It may possess funds, appointing a Treasurer annually to take charge of them.

8th. Philadelphia or Baltimore Yearly Meeting will depute six or more friends to attend Centre Yearly Meeting who may be employed in the general service of the meeting, but in all cases of appeals three or more of said committee to be appointed to form part of the committee which may be selected to try the case, they acting in the capacity of a third Quarterly Meeting's appointment.

Women friends to depute like number from their body to attend the women's meeting.

9th. Philadelphia or Baltimore Yearly Meeting will transmit to Centre Yearly Meeting copies of the memorials of deceased friends, which may be passed by the meeting; reports of standing committees, also reports of special committees which may have had charge of subjects relating to changes of Discipline, or the promotion of our religious testimonies and other matters that might be deemed of interest and of benefit.

10th. It shall be the duty of Philadelphia or Baltimore Yearly Meeting of Ministers & Elders to appoint four or more friends to attend Centre Yearly Meeting of Ministers & Elders.

11th. The Yearly Meeting of Ministers & Elders will conduct its business according to the usual practice in Philad^a or Baltimore.

Signed on behalf of the committee,

over