

to give to the Yearly Meeting possession of the property, free of all incumbrance. They also inform the Yearly Meeting that there is at present a small school taught on the premises.

Signed on behalf of the committee
Benjamin P. Moore.

At the request of the present standing committee having charge of the Fair Hill property, they were all released except Benjamin Halliwell (who is not present), and the following named friends were appointed to propose to a future sitting, the names of suitable friends to constitute a committee in their steads, viz:— William H. Stabler, Isaac H. Dixon, Benjamin P. Moore, Abner M. Plummer, William Ellis, Josiah Barrett, Isaac Walker, Thomas Nichols, Joseph Branson, David Parry, James Coale, Israel Tannis, Benjamin Walker, Henry Addings, and Cyrus Blackburn.

The committee appointed to examine and adjust the treasurers account, and report the name of a friend to serve as Treasurer, reported as follows: "That they have examined the same and find the vouchers for his payment all correct. There is remaining in his hands a balance of one hundred and seventy two dollars and thirteen cents ($172.13),— the quotas from the Quarterly Meetings being all paid in. They would propose that the sum of two hundred dollars be raised for the use of the meeting during the ensuing year, and that Israel Grahame be appointed Treasurer."

which was satisfactory to the meeting. And the friend named appointed treasurer. Our several Quarterly Meetings were directed to forward him their respective quotas of the sum proposed to be raised.

Then adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

First of the 11th month and fifth of the week.

Near the time adjourned to friends again assembled.

The committee appointed at a former sitting to prepare essays of Epistles to the Yearly Meetings with which we correspond, produced one embodying the minute in relation to the exercises of this meeting upon the state of Society; which was read and approved, and the clerk was directed to transcribe, sign & forward it to said Yearly Meetings respectively. The clerk was also directed to embody the substance of this Epistle with the minute of this meeting in relation to its exercises upon the state of Society, and have it printed in the Extracts.

The committee appointed to propose the names of suitable friends to constitute a standing committee to the care of the Fair Hill property reported the following in addition to Benjamin Halliwell who already stands appointed, which was satisfactory to the meeting and the friends named appointed to that service, to wit:— Caleb Stabler, Benjamin P. Moore, William H. Stabler, Abner M. Plummer, Richard T. Bentley, Francis S. Corkran, and Edward H. Stabler.
