

The meeting then adjourned to 10 o'clock to morrow morning.

30th of the month and fifth of the week.

Friends assembled near the time to which the meeting adjourned.

The following minutes of friends in attendance handed in by women's meeting, were now read, viz:-

Martha Miller, a member, from Cherry St. Mo. Meeting, Philadelphia as companion of Mary L. Calley.

Lydia Jackson, a member, from Centre M. M. Delaware, as companion of, Alice Chandler }

Judith P. Russell, a member, from Rochester M. Meeting, New York,

The committee appointed to examine and settle the Treasurers account, &c. produced the following report which was satisfactory, and Israel J. Graham was appointed Treasurer and the Quarterly Meetings were requested to forward to him their several Quotas viz:-

To the Yearly Meeting now sitting:

The committee to examine and adjust the Treasurers account Report, that the quotas of the Quarterly Meetings have all been paid in, of the sum directed to be raised last year.

They find in the hands of the Treasurer a balance of One Hundred and ninety one dollars and five cents, the vouchers for his payments being all correct.

They propose that the sum of One Hundred Dollars be raised for the use of the Yearly Meeting during the ensuing year, and

They propose the name of Israel J. Graham as Treasurer on behalf of the Committee

W^m Stabler.

10th mo. 29th 1851

The clerks were requested to have 2000 copies of the Extracts from the minutes of this meeting, printed for distribution among our Quarterly Meetings

The committee appointed to prepare essays of Epistles to the several Yearly Meetings with which we corresponded, now produced one, embracing the exercises of this meeting on the State of Society, which was approved, and the clerk was requested to transcribe and sign it on behalf of this meeting and forward it to the Yearly Meetings of New York, Philadelphia, Ohio, Indiana, and Genessee, respectively.

Having been again favoured through the several sittings of this meeting, with the solemnizing influence of the Divine Presence, under which we have been enabled to transact the business that has come before us, with much condescension and brotherly affection, for which precious privilege our hearts are bowed in humble gratitude to the great Head of the church, the meeting concluded, to meet again at the usual time next year, if consistent with the Divine Will

William Stabler, Clerk.
