The clerk was directed to furnish the meeting for sufferings with a copy of this minute.

The standing committee on the Pasture Lot produced the following report, which was satisfactory, and the committee was requested to pay the sum of $85.⁰⁰ therein named to the Treasurer of the yearly meeting viz;

The standing committee having charge of the Pasture Lot report, that they have in their hands the sum of $85.⁰⁰ subject to the direction of the yearly meeting.

One of the committee having removed beyond the limits of the yearly meeting, the committee would suggest the propriety of an additional member being added to their number.

On behalf of the committee
Townsend Scott,
Isaac F. Dixon.

Daniel Pope, Joseph P. Baynes, Abraham Meritt, Townsend Scott, and Joel Price were appointed to bring forward to a future sitting the name of a suitable friend to serve on this committee in place of the member who has removed beyond the limits of this yearly meeting.

The committee appointed at a former sitting to consider the subject brought up from Nottingham Quarterly meeting, produced the following report, which was approved by the meeting, and the clerk was requested to furnish that Quarterly meeting, with the judgment of this meeting upon the subject viz:

The committee appointed to consider and report their judgment upon the subject brought up from Nottingham Quarterly meeting in relation to the words "improper monuments" as used in our Discipline in regard to placing grave stones in our burying grounds report, that we agree in the judgment, that they are intended to, and properly apply to such only as are of a character involving our ~~character~~ testimony, for the maintenance of simplicity and plainness; and that those that are of such dimensions as only to admit of placing thereon the name, and date of the birth and death of the deceased, may in future be admitted in our burying grounds.

Signed by direction and on behalf of the committee, by

Thomas P. Stabler
Thomas Wright
Edward Jessop
Israel Tunnis
Jeremiah Moore

Then adjourned to 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

29th of the Mo. and 5th of the week.

The committee appointed upon the subject at a former sitting, produced the following report, which was united, with, and Edward H. Stabler accordingly appointed Treasurer to this meeting viz;

The committee appointed to examine the Treasurers account report, that since the adjournment of the yearly meeting last year, the Treasurer has received from the committee of the Pasture Lot $131.⁹⁴. We find that his disbursements are supported by proper vouchers, and that there is now in his hands a balance of $325.⁰⁰, which we think is sufficient for the ensuing year. We recommend the appointment of Edward H. Stabler as Treasurer.
