The remaining two Epistles from the Yearly Meeting with which this corresponds, were now read to our edification and comfort.

The minutes of the last Yearly Meeting were read then adjourned to 10 O'clock tomorrow morning.

Thirtieth of the Month and Third of the week

The Meeting having met pursuant to adjournment, and entered upon the consideration of the State of Society, as exhibited by the answers to the Queries from our several Quarterly Meetings, it proceeded therein as far as the 2^d Query inclusive, under a feeling of sweet and precious solemnity in which Divine Love seemed to flow as from vessel to vessel, and then adjourned to 3 O'clock in the afternoon.

On convening in the afternoon the meeting resumed the consideration of the state of Society, and proceeded therein as far as the 5th Query inclusive, with the answers thereto, under a comfortable evidence of the gathering being owned by the Great Head of the Church, when it adjourned to three O'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Thirty-first of the month and Fourth of the week

On assembling in accordance with adjournment, the meeting again resumed the consideration of the State of Society and proceeded through the remaining Queries, with their answers, and the following summary was agreed upon, as expressing the state of Society at this time within our borders.

Summary answers to the Queries

First.

All our meetings both for worship and discipline have been held except seventeen within the verge of Baltimore Quarter, one within the verge of Haverhill a number, not all specified within the verge of Nottingham Quarter, and one within that of Centre, the exceptions being mostly caused by unavoidable obstacles. The meetings on first-day mornings have been attended by most of our members. Other meetings continue to be neglected by many. Unbecoming behaviour when assembled is generally avoided, and the hour of meeting is nearly observed.
