A feeling of sympathy having been spread over the meeting, for Friends in their different meetings throughout our limits, and especially those in remote situations, a committee was appointed to unite with a committee of Women Friends, and visit our meetings, as way may open, therefore, in a mission of love, to endeavor to build up the waste places of our Zion, and encourage all to faithfulness in their various allotments.

Our committee consists of the following named Friends, and they are directed to report to our next meeting, viz:
