

1860

The representatives from Warrington Quarterly meeting now produced the returns of the Census of their members as ordered by this meeting last year, which the Clerk was directed to dispose of in the same way as the returns from the other Quarterly Meetings.

The committee appointed at a former sitting to forward the names of suitable Friends to constitute a Standing Committee on Indian Concerns, produced the following list, which was satisfactory to the meeting, and the Friends therein named were appointed to the service, and encouraged to embrace every right opening to be useful to this interesting, but greatly wronged people.

Philip E. Thomas	Lydia Jeffries
Edward H. Staller	Martha E. Tyson
Samuel McJannet	Delorah H. Staller
Samuel Townsends	Catharine M. Smith
Benjamin Hallowell	Rebecca Turner
Gerard H. Reed	Priscilla S. Wallen
Joseph S. Wallen
Edward Joseph	and Margaret E. Hallowell

The following report from the Standing Committee on the Fair Hill Boarding School Property was received and was satisfactory, viz:

In the Yearly Meeting now sitting:

The Standing Committee in charge of the Fair Hill Boarding School Property have again a favorable report to make, of the condition of the School and Farm.

The Buildings are kept in good repair, and the Farm under its excellent management, is annually increasing in value. A larger number of the children of Friends have entered for the present, than at the preceding term. One of the yearly meeting Scholarships is now vacant, which the Committee would be pleased to fill as soon as a suitable application shall be made.

As it has been several years since the Yearly meeting appointed the present committee, they would suggest the propriety of appointing a committee to bring forward the names of suitable Friends to take charge of this trust.

On behalf of the committee

Benjamin D. Moore
Richard J. Bently
Mary S. Roberts
Edith D. Bently

In accordance with the suggestion of the committee it was resolved, and

Calist Staller	Henry S. Taylor
Nathan Tyson	Joseph S. Wallen
William Hughes	David G. McCoy
Cyrus Priest	John May
Daniel Walker	Jesse Blackburn

were appointed to unite with a committee of women Friends, and propose to a future sitting, the names of suitable Friends to constitute a Standing Committee in charge of this trust.

Then adjourned to Ten O'clock tomorrow morning.

First of the Eleventh month and Fifth of the week.

The committee appointed upon the subject at a former sitting, produced the following report, which was approved, and Edward H. Staller was appointed Treasurer to this meeting.

The Committee appointed to examine and adjust the Treasurers account, report, that they find the vouchers for his payments correct, and a balance in his hands of $244.58 cts. (which includes the sum of $65.70 cts received from the Committee on the Pasture Lot, as directed by the meeting last year). They are of the judgment that no money will be required for the coming year, and they propose the name of Edward H. Staller as Treasurer.

On behalf of the Committee

Richard H. Townsend

Baltimore 10th Mo. 31st 1860

An exercise having been weightily spread over the meeting for providing suitable reading for our children and other members, the subject was recommended to the consideration and care of our meeting for sittings.
