To the Yearly Meeting now sitting

The joint Committee of men and women Friends appointed to consider the subject brought up in the report from Warrington Quarterly Meeting, relative to the discontinuance of Warrington Monthly Meeting, have met and given the subject their serious consideration, and have united in proposing to the Yearly Meeting, as our judgment, that it would be right to appoint a committee of judicious Friends to make an affectionate visit to the members who have heretofore constituted that Meeting, in order to encourage and induce them to adopt some course that may tend to the satisfactory adjustment of the difficulties that may appear to exist among them, and also if, in the judgment of said committee it should appear expedient to do so, to visit the Quarterly Meeting in view of the same object.
