

Q863 Quarterly Meeting report, that a part of the Committee have visited one of the Meetings attached thereto since last year, but circumstances prevented their giving as full attention to the concern as had been before the minds of the Committee generally.

Signed by direction of the Committee by
Thos P. Stabler Clerk

Baltimore 10th Month 27th 1863

The Committee having charge of the Jan Hill Boarding School property, produced the following Report viz:

The Committee having in charge the Jan Hill Boarding School property, report, that the School has opened for the present term, with about the usual number of pupils, and that the farm continues to improve. The Yearly Meeting scholarship has been filled, and the Committee recur with much satisfaction to the good that has been effected by the means; but believing that more might be done with the capital there invested, the Committee are of opinion that the time has nearly arrived when it would be right to make some disposition of the property, and would suggest to the Yearly Meeting that the subject be referred to the Meeting for Sufferings, for such action on its part, as will meet the requirements of the best interests of the Society.

Signed, on behalf of the Committee by
Richard J. Bentley Clerk

After serious consideration, the Report of the Committee was read with and the subject of the disposition of the property was referred to the Meeting for Sufferings, and that Meeting was accordingly directed to take such action in the case as in their judgment will most promote the best interests of the Society.

The Clerk is directed to furnish the Meeting for Sufferings with a copy of this minute.
