

1864 about ninety families, and parts of families who are believed to have a right of membership with them, but they had not all brought their certificates. Many of them were religiously concerned Friends, & considerable number were informed. Last Sun induced to settle there by the establishment of the meeting others had in prospect of coming, and some had been added by conviction.

In accordance with the request of Quaker Cove Monthly Meeting, Fairfax Quarterly Meeting, in the latter month last, authorized the establishment of a monthly meeting at Hapscawock, which we are informed has since been opened.

We have felt much sympathy with those Friends situated so remote from the body of the Society, and we earnestly desire their encouragement and spiritual welfare.

The whole committee having conferred together and carefully considered the subject, concluded to be united in judgment that the way is not open at the time for the establishment of the proposed quarterly meeting, but we hope the time is not far distant when it may with propriety be wanted. We recommend that the subject be continued under the care of the quarterly meeting of association with its judgment.
