The Meeting for Sufferings is directed to open communication with all other part of such commonly called and Orthodox Friends for an equitable division of all the property we now hold which was formerly jointly held by them and to according to the number of members of the two branches at the time of the separation and of annuall payments to that end can be effected to pay them on the sale of the Pasture Lot on the Fair Hill Boarding School Property the amount that may be agreed upon as their just share of all the proper held by us.

The Clerk is directed to furnish the Meeting for Sufferings with a copy of this minute.

The Committee appointed at a former sitting to endeavour to embody the exercises of the Meeting while engaged in the consideration of the State of Society produced the following Minute which was approved viz:

While engaged in considering the condition of our religious Society within the limits of this Yearly Meeting we have been sensible of our many deficiencies, and at the same time have had to acknowledge the providential care of the Heavenly Shepherd who may enlarge our strength to worship and serve Him.

In the review of every thing we have felt it to be not a reasonable duty but a precious privilege earnestly to inculcate prayer and watchfulness that we may fulfil the first commandment by loving God with all the heart, mind and strength, as we have found Him able to fulfill the second which is to love our neighbour as ourselves. Then who live under the government of Divine love will find the ear turned to the cry of the needy and the heart open to the natural sympathies which when unrestrained lead to deeds of mercy and help will be extended, and the soul being cleansed from the love of sin and corruption will realize the happy experience that He is the person whom the Lord makes free.

Such affectionate advice to Friends at this time appeared that the yearly meeting upon religious
