

B64 Our Meeting this year has been unusually large and favored with remarkable solemnity. A considerable number have attended from that section of our country where the scourge of war has exerted its desolating effects. Although great pecuniary losses have been sustained, and personal dangers sometimes encountered, we have rejoiced in learning that the Meeting of Friends have been generally kept up, their lives have been preserved from the hand of violence, and amidst all their trials they have often had cause to rejoice in the Lord.

The Committee appointed to prepare essays of epistles to the different Yearly Meetings with which we correspond, now produced one embodying the Minutes of the exercises of of the meeting which was approved, and the Clerk was directed to transcribe it and forward a copy, signed on behalf of the Meeting, to the Yearly Meetings of Philadelphia New York, Geneva, Ohio and Indiana respectively.

Having been made renewedly sensible throughout the several sittings of this Yearly Meeting of the overshadowing and preserving influence of Him that inhabiteth Eternity, whose name is Holy, unto whom we have been enabled to transact the various and important business that has claimed our attention in great harmony and brotherly love and confidence for which favor our hearts are tendered in gratitude and thankfulness to the Author of all our mercies the Meeting adjourned to meet again at the usual time next year, if consistent with the Divine Will.
