

1868 immediately to enter upon the important engagement.

As it has been several years since this Committee was appointed, and some who were then placed on the appointment have been removed by death, and the health of others will not permit them to perform the duties entrusted to them, the Committee would suggest to the Yearly Meeting the propriety of making a new appointment at this time.

Twenty seventh of the month, and third of the week, about the time adjourned to Friends assembled -

The Meeting entered upon the Consideration of the State of Society, as represented by the answers from our several Quarterly Meetings, and proceeded therein, as far as the second query inclusive. Much solemnity prevailed over the Meeting, and lively testimonies were borne to the all-sufficiency of the Divine Presence and Power, which is ever with us for our help and preservation; and much encouragement was given forth to obedience and faithfulness in maintaining the integrity of our profession, in our daily walk in life.

Then adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Third day afternoon: Pursuant to adjournment Friends again assembled.

The Meeting resumed the Consideration of the State of Society, and proceeded therein through the seventh query inclusive. Solemn quiet again spread over the Meeting, and the impressive exercises of concerned friends, were tendering and precious -

The clerks were directed to have the Epistles now received from the other Yearly Meetings with which we correspond printed as an Appendix to our Extracts, for the benefit of our Friends who are not with us on the present occasion.

Then adjourned to 3 o'clock to morrow afternoon.
