Eleventh Answer

No New Meetings have been settled amongst us during the past year.

Twelfth Answer

Friends generally appear to be careful, as far as practicable to place their children for tuition under the care of suitable teachers in membership with us.

One of the Committee who stand appointed to record the Minutes of this Meeting, reported the Service performed,

The Committee on the Subject of a revision of our Book of Discipline, which was referred to this Meeting from last year, now produced the following report, which was united with and the Committee released; viz

1868

To the Yearly Meeting

The Committee appointed last year upon the Revision of the Discipline, Report that they have several times met upon the Subject, and, after comparing Sentiments, have come to the Conclusion that they are not prepared to recommend any changes in the Discipline at this time

Signed Benjamin Hallowell

Clerk to the Committee

Baltimore 10th Month 26th 1868

The Trustees of the Fair Hill Fund produced the following report, which was satisfactory to the Meeting, and in accordance with the suggestion therein contained, a Committee was appointed, to unite with a similar Committee of Women's Meeting, to bring forward to a future sitting the names of suitable friends to constitute a Committee on Education, and to have at their disposal the interest accruing in said fund, in furtherance of this object viz,

(3 Friends from each Quarterly Meeting)
 Baltimore Samuel Townsend, Henry J. Giese and Wm. Schu Thomas
 Warrington Cyrus Eriest, Solomon Shepherd and Job Hibbard
 Fairfax Wm. Holmes, Wm. B. Steer and Charles L. Wood,
 Nottingham David Pyle Wm. M. Way and David Phillips
 Centre Andrew Mow, Reuben Wall and Jesse Underwood
 Prairie Grove Joseph A. Sugdale and Aquilla Whitson

To the Yearly Meeting Now Sitting

The Committee having in charge the Fair Hill Fund, Report, That all moneys received during the past year, have been as they believe, safely invested; and in order that the advantages intended to be derived from this source may be made available, the Committee would suggest to the Yearly Meeting the propriety of appointing a Committee on Education to take charge of the interest now accrued, and accruing, and expend it for Educational purposes, in such manner as will best promote the good of Society.

Signed on behalf of the Committee by

Thomas Y. Sauls

Richard T. Beutley

The Meeting then Adjourned to 10 o'clock to Morrow Morning.
