Thirty first of the month and third of the week,
Friends met pursuant to adjournment.

The meeting entered upon the consideration of the State of Society, as brought before us by the reading of the answers to the First and Second Queries. During the solemnity which prevailed over the meeting, much impressive and profitable counsel was held forth, and we were encouraged to greater faithfulness in the attendance of all our meetings, and in maintaining our religious organization. Obedience to the Divine Teacher in the soul was shown to be our first and highest duty, and would lead to the fulfilment of all the other duties of life.

Then adjourned to 3 O'clock this afternoon.

Third Day afternoon. About the time adjourned to Friends assembled, and proceeded with the reading and answering of the Queries as far as the Seventh inclusive.

The consideration of the several important subjects which came before us called forth lively exhortations, tending to a more faithful performance of these religious duties.

Our Friends, Rachel Nick, and Louisa A. Wright paid us an acceptable visit at this time.

Adjourned to 3 O'clock Fourth Day afternoon.
