

1841 War, and in practical support of the eternal principles of Love and Peace, claimed the attention of the meeting. The successful termination of the Convention, by which a mode for an amicable settlement of the pending questions of difference between the United States and Great Britain, was agreed upon, to the satisfaction of the Governments and people of both countries, has imparted to the Friends of Humanity, additional ground to hope, that the same wise, peaceful, and Christian mode, which is in such beautiful harmony with the Principles and Testimonies of Friends, may be adopted, to settle all future difficulties and differences that may arise between nations.

Since it is desired, that the concern should be kept alive, so that every right effort to secure permanent peaceful relations between all Governments, should be continually and wisely made, and every renewed opportunity to advance the righteous cause of Peace be promptly embraced!

This advancement will not be effected by aiming at impracticable ideas, but by recognizing existing facts, and, under the influence of Divine Wisdom, endeavoring, by the unchanging principles and laws which govern the heart of Humanity, to shape and direct the course of Events in such manner, that Peace shall be evolved as a natural and harmonious result. Then will Peace be permanent. Then will man hold sacred, not only the life, but the rights, interest and happiness of his fellow-man everywhere. Then in the figurative language of Prophetic Vision, "The Mountain of the Lord's House will be established in the top of the mountains, and exalted above the hills, and all nations shall flow into it," clothed with the garments of Justice, Love and Peace.

Our Friends, Harriet C. Stockley and Rebecca Price, paid an acceptable visit to this meeting.

The Committee appointed to nominate Friends to constitute the Representative Committee of this Yearly Meeting of the ensuing year, proposed the following, in conjunction with a like appointment by Women's Meeting, which were approved, and the Clerk is directed, to furnish the Clerk of that Committee with a copy of this minute, viz:
