1876

Sixth

Our testimony against a hireling ministry, oaths, military services, clandestine trade, prize goods and lotteries, appears to be generally maintained. One report makes an abatement with regard to hireling ministry.

Seventh

Most of our members are careful to live within the bounds of their circumstances and to avoid involving themselves in business beyond their ability to manage.
They generally just in their dealings, and punctual in complying with their engagements.
Where there has been cause for fear in these respects, care has been extended.

Eighth.

Friends are generally careful to bear a testimony against every form of oppression. Children in Friends families are provided for and instructed in useful learning.

Ninth

Care is generally taken to deal with offenders seasonably and impartially, and to evince to those who will not be reclaimed the spirit of meekness and love before they are disowned. Two of the Reports make an abatement in dealing with some offences.
