

1877

- Appendix - 1877-

* The Committee appointed to examine and settle the Treasurer's account proposed the name of a Friend for Treasurer, were as follows:
 Franklin T. Pope, Richard C. Gentry, Nathan Smith, Theodore Steward,
 William Williams, Joseph Nichols, Edward S. Buffington, Jacob Bolton,
 William P. Fisher, William B. May.

† The Committee appointed to nominate suitable Friends, in connection with those appointed by Home Meeting - a Representative Committee, were as follows:
 Wm Wood, Mendenhall Rice, Cyrus Blackburn, Nathan Smith,
 Shephard Wood, Cyrus S. Grist, Bernard Taylor, Daniel C. Wood,
 Wm. Hogg, Phillip Warner, James Smalley, John H. Stokes, Wm. P. Fisher and Wm. B. May.

† The Committee appointed to take in charge the proposed amendment of the Discipline, as recorded in the Report from Fairfax Quarterly Meeting, relative to the subject of marriage, and report their judgment to a future sitting of the Meeting, were as follows:

Levi H. Rice,	Shephard Wood	Wm B May
J. Burling Hull	Joshua Grist	Wm P Fisher
Wm John Thomas	Joshua Russell	Edwin Blackburn
Theo H Matthews	Theodore Steward	Thos Russell
Abel A. Hull	Cyrus S. Grist

Chaackey Gillingham	William M May
David W. Branson	John W. Lucas
Samuel M. Jannay	James K. Brown
Phineas Nichols	David H. Pyle
Robert A. Rute	Allan Cutter

The names of the above committees were omitted in the regular order of transcribing the minutes by reason of the original minutes being mislaid, afterwards found, and the names of the committees given in the appendix as above.

For the Recording Committee

Michael Offley