30 Ten years having nearly elapsed since a census of our members was taken, our Quarterly Meetings are requested to have census of the number of families and parts of families; also, the number of male and female adults, and the number of male and female minors of their respective meetings, taken as near the 1879 first of Fifth month, next, as practicable. In order that these returns may be uniform and conclusive, the clerks are directed, to have suitable blanks printed for the purpose, and forwarded to the correspondents of each of our Monthly Meetings.

31 A Memorial of Baltimore Monthly Meeting, endorsed by Baltimore Quarterly Meeting, concerning our deceased Friend, John Needles, also a memorial of Hopewell Monthly Meeting endorsed by Fairfax Quarterly Meeting, concerning our deceased Friend, Joseph Branson, were received from the Representative Committee, read and approved. They were directed to be signed by the clerk and returned to the Representative Committee to be recorded.

33 The Committee appointed at a former sitting, to endeavor to embody some of the exercises of the meeting, in a suitable minute, to be inserted in our Extracts, for the benefit of our absent members, produced the following, which was satisfactory to the Meeting, viz:

On entering into an examination of the State of Society as exhibited in the answers to the queries, the meeting was baptised into a deep state of feeling as to the true state of our Zion. The deficiencies every where apparent throughout our borders served to remind us that our condition is far from being what it should be in order to reach that high standard of Christian excellence at which all should aim. But as it is the sick, and not the whole, who need the aid of a physician when the complaints under which we are suffering are known, then it is we are induced to look out for help for our infirmities. Enraptured minds were wanted to point out to us the way of life and salvation, and we were encouraged to pursue that plain path of duty which the light will ever make manifest to the sincere inquirer after truth.

The Spirit of God in the soul, is the alone foundation of all truth, and to this we directed to apply for assistance in all our undertakings. We were reminded of the testimony borne by the blessed Jesus before Pontius Pilate, that to this end was I
