Baltimore, 10th month 26th, 1880.

To Baltimore Yearly Meeting:

The Committee on Education, during the year now closing, have been endeavoring as way could be opened to move forward in the work committed to their care.

At the close of the Yearly Meeting of 1879, we met, appointed a Clerk, and set apart a number of our members as an Executive Committee, who were requested to meet at intervals and represent the general committee, when it might not be possible or necessary
