26. The joint committee appointed on Second-day afternoon to consider the subject of a committee to visit the Quarterly and Subordinate Meetings, made report as follows:

To Baltimore Yearly Meeting now sitting:

Report of the appointment of a committee to visit, in Gospel love Subordinate Meetings as set forth in the minute of their appointment, nearly all met, and after a full and deliberate consideration of the subject it was thought right to nominate a committee to unite with Friends or committees of Quarterly or Monthly Meetings, to encourage Friends to greater faithfulness in their religious duties, and also to inquire into the apparent want of interest in many of those in the middle as well as in the younger walks of life, and to endeavor to suggest a remedy.

For this purpose they nominate a committee as follows.
