In our assembly this year, held under some discomforts and inconveniences as to the outward, we have been favored to transact in brotherly love and entire harmony, the work of our Society that has been brought before us for our deliberative action.

Closing

Minute.

We therefore now adjourn, to assemble for the first time in a Yearly Meeting capacity in the new meetinghouse, now being erected for our accommodation on Park Avenue in this City, at the usual time in the autumn of next year, if such be sanctioned by the Great Head of the Church, into whose Holy keeping we now commit ourselves.

Edward Stabler, Jr. Clerk.

George B. Passmore, Assistant Clerk.
