For Ellison Newport, a Minister from Horsam Monthly Meeting, Pennsylvania, dated Tenth Month, 1st, 1890.

For Isaac Eyre, an Elder from Wakefield Monthly Meeting, Penna. dated Tenth Month 9th, 1890.

For Ezra Fell, a Minister from Wilmington Monthly Meeting, Delaware, dated Tenth Month 24th, 1890.

For Isaac B. Brown, an Elder, from Wakefield Monthly Meeting, Pennsylvania, dated Tenth Month 9th, 1890.

For Robert Barnes and Esther H. his wife, Ministers from Purchase Monthly Meeting, New York, dated Tenth Mo. 8th, 1890.

For Samuel H. Broomell, an Elder, from Penn's Grove Monthly Meeting, Penna., dated Tenth Mo. 10th, 1890.

The following was received at this time and read:

For Samuel Sharpe, an Elder, from Haddonfield Monthly Meeting, New Jersey, dated Tenth Mo. 8th, 1890.

Much unity was expressed with the presence and labors of Friends who are with us, having minutes from their respective Yearly Meetings, also with those who are without minutes and who are equally welcome.

The Minutes as just read were forwarded to the Clerk of Women's Meeting, and the following received from them and read:

1890 For Margaretta Walton, a Minister, from Fallowfield Monthly Meeting, Penna., dated Tenth Month 11th, 1890, and endorsed by Western Quarterly Meeting, Tenth Month 21st, 1890.

Minutes For Harriet E. Kirk, a Minister, from Horsham Monthly Meeting, Penna., dated Tenth Month 1st, 1890.

For Mary M. Thomas, a Minister from Gwynedd Monthly Meeting, Penna., dated Tenth Mo. 2nd, 1890.

For Annie J. Foulke, an Elder and companion of Mary M. Thomas, from same Monthly Meeting and same date.

For Frances J. Williams, a Minister, from Shrewsbury Monthly Meeting, New Jersey, dated Tenth Mo. 2nd, 1890.

Also for Thomas T. Williams, an Elder, husband and companion to the former.

6 Epistles from the six Yearly Meetings with which this Meeting corresponds were laid before the Meeting, and those from Philadelphia, New York, Genesee, and Ohio were read at this time. The many evidences of spiritual growth and activity, shown by the reading of these Epistles to exist amongst the membership of those Yearly Meetings, were felt to be strengthening and encouraging to us.

The reading and consideration of the remaining Epistles was deferred to a future session.

7 To produce to a future session a suitable form of reply to these evidences of friendly and fraternal greeting from our brethren in other and distant States — yet all of one fold — the following named Friends stand appointed, viz.: William Wood, Marlinton Hoopes, William H. May, A. Harland Hull, Samuel M. Price, Edward Phoemaker, Hiram Griest, J. Edward Walker, Solomon Shepherd, William H. Coates, Alfred Wood, Charles Farquhar, Jeremiah J. Starr, Levi H. Brown, Hugh R. Holmes, David W. Branson.
