

1890 It being deemed proper that some of the religious exercises that 8 may be spread before the various sessions of this body, should be gathered up and not lost, to the end that those of our members who are not favored to be in attendance with us, may read and profit by them withal, the following Committee was appointed. They are directed to preserve and embody some of the exercises referred to in a suitable minute, to be printed with our proceedings, when submitted to and approved by a later session.

Committee on Exercises
 William H. Moore,
 Mordecai Price, Edwin H. Reynolds, Percy Russell, Samuel L. Martindale, William Brown, Thomas C. Matthews, William Williams, Amos H. Giest, Daniel P. Thomas,

9 The Representatives in attendance were directed to confer together at the close of this session and select a suitable Friend to serve this Meeting for Clerk and one for Assistant Clerk for the ensuing year, and to report at the opening of the afternoon session the result of their deliberations.

Then adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Second day Afternoon.

The Meeting reassembled at the hour of 3 o'clock.

10 Job Hilbert, on behalf of the Representatives, reported that they Appoint had met and conferred together since the close of the morning session ment of and had united in proposing Edward Stabler, Jr., for Clerk, Clerk and Amos H. Giest, for Assistant Clerk.
 The nominations, being separately considered were united with by the Meeting, and the Friends named accordingly appointed to the service for the ensuing year.

11 The following special Committee was appointed to examine and Audit audit the books of the Treasurer, to recommend a sum to be raised for the purposes of the Meeting the ensuing year and to nominate a Friend to serve as Treasurer.

14 The two remaining Epistles, namely, those from Indiana and Illinois, were now read, creating a renewed interest in the various fields of labor in which our brethren are now working, and bringing us nearer together in the bonds of love and fellowship, or as expressed in one of them, "as children of one Father."

The adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Third day Morning, 28th of the Month.

The Meeting again convened at 10 o'clock, the hour to which an adjournment was had.

15 The Joint Central Committee on Friday School Work laid before the Meeting at this time their Annual Report, which was read, giving in detail the work done by them during the past year, and
