28 Our friend Ellison Newport, laid before this Meeting a deep concern Ellison Newport, that had rested with him, to visit in Gospel love, Women's Meeting.

and Our friend Samuel H. Broomell also laid before the Meeting a S. H. Broomell similar concern.

visit Both propositions being united with by this Meeting they were Women's set at liberty to make the visit as proposed, accompanied by William Meeting Williams, Women's Meeting having informed that such a visit would be acceptable to them at this time.

29 A proposition was introduced into the Meeting looking to the holding Proposition of one session of the Yearly Meeting per day hereafter, commencing to hold at nine o'clock A. M., with a short interval for dinner and sitting one until two o'clock, or later in the afternoon. It was stated that one Session or more of the other Yearly Meetings had made such change, the object being to give more time for the work of Committees in the afternoon of each day. The subject was referred to the attention of our next Yearly Meeting.

30 Our friend Ezra Gill gave expression to a deep concern that had Ezra Gill been laid upon him to visit Women's Meeting. Information having been received that a visit at this time would be acceptably received, he was set at liberty, accompanied by Levi H. Brown, to make the visit as proposed.

31 The Joint Committee, especially set apart at a previous session to nominate fifteen Friends of each sex out of the Meeting at
