

1890

Disbursements of Yearly Meeting from page 475	$399.98
Central Committee on Firstday Schools, per
Wm. J. Hall, Treasurer General Conference.	150.00
Central Committee, for use of Committee
($6.95 of appropriation of $200 not drawn)	43.05
Committee on Philanthropic Labor amount
of appropriation	150.00
Printing Proceedings of Yearly Meeting	192.00
Edwin R. Buffington, per order and for account of Educational Committee	100.00
Pemberton Wood, per order and for account of Educational Committee	20.00
Lining and Shelving Fire Proof Vault	32.53
Box Rent, Safe Deposit and Trust fee,
$10.00, Storage on Papers in same	13.25
Incidental Expenses of Yearly Meeting	26.54
Advertising Public Meetings of Yearly Meeting	6.78
Printing, Type Writing, Stationery etc.	16.17
Expenses of Committee to visit Subordinate
Meetings	295
Balance Yearly Meeting Stock on hand 10-27-90	$1,153.25
Of the $1,400 directed to be raised last year, for the use of the Yearly Meeting, all has been paid to the Treasurer except $31.36.	$380.78
A year ago there was a balance of $50.43 over due from quotas of Monthly Meetings, of this amount $30.83 has been since received and is included in the above statement.
Amount of Cash on hand to Credit Yearly
Meeting Stock	$380.78
Amount of Cash on hand, Credit Indian Fund	343.36
Amount of Cash on hand, Credit Fair Hill Fund
Balance in Farmers and Planters Bank ac-
for Bank Book, 10-28-90	952.04

Elisha H. Walker, Treasurer.

$1,674.18

1890

The Meeting directs that the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars be raised, as proposed, in the usual manner for the purposes of the Yearly Meeting, during the ensuing year.

Our several Quarterly Meetings are hereby directed to forward to the Treasurer of the Yearly Meeting, at as early a date as may be, their respective quotas of the sum of twenty-five hundred dollars as aforesaid.

40 The Committee especially charged with the duty of endeavoring to collect some of the religious and other exercises of the several sessions of this body for the benefit of such of our members who have not been privileged to mingle with us as a religious or deliberative body, produced the following minute, which was read, and upon consideration approved and ordered to be printed in full in the minutes of our proceedings.

The attention of our Quarterly and Monthly Meetings is directed to the propriety of having this Minute of Exercises read when their members are in such Meetings assembled.

Minute of Exercises.

To our Absent Members:

We regret your inability to mingle with us upon this favored occasion of our annual gathering, believing it from the many searching testimonies handed forth, to have been a season of deep baptism of spirit and dedication of heart, eliciting expressions from all ages present in behalf of the well being of our Society, also extending beyond our borders to humanity at large, so we have thought the best evidence that we were not unmindful of your absence would be to insert in the published proceedings of our deliberations a brief résumé thereof for your perusal.

Our meetings on Firstday were well attended. In the morning was witnessed the assembling of the largest audience ever collected in our present commodious house, every available space being occupied.

The solemnity of the occasion was made manifest by the