

1891 For Lydia H. Price, a Minister from Birmingham
Monthly Meeting Penna., held Ninth Mo. 26th, 1891.

For Emily Jackson, an Elder and companion for Lydia H. Price, from the same Monthly Meeting and same date.

6 Epistles from the six Yearly Meetings with which we are in Epistles correspondence were laid before the Meeting, and those received from other from Philadelphia, New York, Genesee, and Ohio were read Yearly at this time, showing a satisfactory and encouraging condition Meetings of the Society within the limits of those Yearly Meetings.

The consideration of the two remaining Epistles was deferred to a later session.

7 The following Committee was set apart at this time, to Committee prepare and produce to a future session a draft of an appropriate reply to the renewed and acceptable evidences of brotherly love, from those bodies of Friends in other portions of our common country, who are in near Christian fellowship with us, viz.:

Received	William Williams,	Hiram Grist,	Hugh R. Holmes,
	Percy Russell,	Samuel L. Dudgeon,	Larlington Hoopes,
	Edmund R. Buffington,	Louis Gillingham,	Samuel H. Harris,
	Robert R. Walker,	William Wood,	Levi H. Brown,

8 To collect some of the Religious exercises of the several sessions of this body and to compile the same in a suitable form for publication in full with our proceedings, for the benefit of Religious our absent members, the following are appointed, viz.:

Exercise Jesse Hoge,	R. Barclay Spicer,	A. Hariland Hull,
Solomon Sheppard,	William E. Branson,	Samuel H. Passmore,
Jonathan H. Branson,	Yardley T. Brown,	Samuel P. Lupton,
Alfred Wood,	Obed J. Pierpoint,	Charles E. Bonds,
	William King,

9 The Representatives who are in attendance upon the services of this Meeting are directed to meet at the close of this

1891 session and to confer together and select a Friend to serve this Meeting as clerk and one for Assistant clerk, during the ensuing year, and to report their decision at the opening of this afternoon's session.

Then adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Second day Afternoon.

10 The Meeting again assembled at 3 o'clock.

The Representatives reported, in writing, that they had met as directed, since the close of the morning session and had united in proposing the name of Edward Stabler, Jr., for clerk and Amos H. Grist for Assistant clerk.

The nominations being considered by the Meeting, separately, were united with and the Friends named are now confirmed to the service for the ensuing year.

11 The following Committee was appointed to examine and audit the books and accounts of the Treasurer, to propose a sum to be raised for the purposes of the Yearly Meeting the coming year and to nominate a Friend to serve as Treasurer, to wit.:

G. Wilmer Kiser,	Jesse Smith,	Jonathan Reynolds,
J. Wilson Moore,	Charles E. Bonds,	William G. McCoy,
William H. Moore,	Uriah Blackburn,	James H. Roberts,

12 Arthur L. Lamb, R. Barclay Spicer, Thomas H. Taylor, and William J. Hull, are appointed to assist the clerks in revising and preparing the minutes of our proceedings for publication, and to have general charge of the printing and distributing the same, amongst our members.

13- To nominate, - together with a similar Committee to be appointed by Women's Branch - fifteen Friends of each sex, out of the Yearly Meeting at large, to serve as members of the Representative Committee, the ensuing year, the following were