

1891 until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Thursday Morning, 28th of the Month

Pursuant to adjournment, the Meeting assembled at 10 o'clock.

19 Our Friend John J. Cornell, said he felt a strong desire to visit in Gospel love, our Sisters, in Meeting assembled. This request being united with, he was left at liberty to make the proposed visit, accompanied by Harlington Hoopes and William Williams.

20 The Joint Committee appointed to nominate from the Yearly Meeting at large, fifteen Friends of each sex, to constitute, in conjunction with those whose names are sent up from the Monthly Meetings direct, the Representative Committee for the ensuing year, submitted the following report, viz:

The Joint Committee appointed to nominate fifteen Friends of each sex from the Meeting at large to serve upon the Representative Committee of the Yearly Meeting the present year, offer the following names:

Edward Stabler, Jr.	Mary C. Blackburn,	Levi H. Brown,
Solomon Shephard,	Mary E. Moore,	Jonathan H. Branson,
Jesse Hoge,	Lois P. Hollingsworth,	Elizabeth P. Blackburn,
John Ballinger,	Sarah J. Price,	Catherine Price,
Seneca P. Broomell,	Sarah J. Miller,	Rebecca J. Broomell,
Joseph H. Lincoln,	Joseph J. Jannery,	Martha J. Townsend,
A. Hariland Hull,	Charles J. Tyson,	Elizabeth M. Foster,
William H. Moore,	James H. Brown,	Mary F. Brown,
Isabella Tyson,	Thomas O. Matthews,	Ellen H. Smith,
Grace Ann King,	Samuel M. Price,	Sarah Ann Shephard.

On behalf of the Committee,

John Thomas,
Esther Lamb.

1891 The report was read. Seneca P. Broomell was released from service upon the Committee at his own request, and George M. Lamb was appointed and confirmed by the Meeting to fill the vacancy.

The Clerks are directed to hand the Clerk of the Representative Committee a copy of this minute, also a list of those names forwarded by the Monthly Meetings.

21 The Clerk of the Representative Committee laid before this Meeting the Records of the proceedings of that body for the past year.

The same were read and their proceedings as set forth in their Minutes, as submitted, were approved and confirmed by the Yearly Meeting.

22 In resuming the consideration of the State of Society, a summary answer was adopted from those now received to the Ninth Query.

During the deliberation upon the answers to this Query, we were counselled to exercise forbearance and patience and that charity that suffreth long and is kind, toward offenders against our Code of Discipline, before they are testified against.

Without concluding the consideration of the Queries, the Meeting adjourned to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Thursday Afternoon, 3 o'clock.

The Meeting again assembled soon after the hour adjourned to.

23 The unfinished business, being the consideration of the remaining Queries was taken up, the Tenth, Eleventh, and Twelfth Queries were duly considered, and summary answers made up, representing with those previously adopted, very nearly the moral health and spiritual condition of the constituent members of this Yearly Meeting, the past year.