

1892. All of the Quarterly Meetings report that they have paid into the hands of our Treasurer their quotas in full, as directed by the Yearly Meeting last year.
- 4.
5. Baltimore Quarterly Meeting forwards, with its report, a minute from the proceedings of that body, adopted in joint session, in Baltimore, in Third Month last, covering a report made by a committee appointed in Ninth Month, 1890, to whom was then referred certain proposed changes in our Book of Discipline, which subject, with the report thereon, is now submitted to the Yearly Meeting for its action.
6. Fairfax reports their Quarterly Meeting, in the Eleventh Month, will hereafter be held alternately, at Woodlawn, Va, and Washington, D. C. It will be held this year at Washington.
7. Certificates and Minutes of unity for Friends from the limits of other Yearly Meetings, who are in attendance with us at this time, were received from the clerk of the Meeting for Ministers and Elders, and laid before the Meeting and read. They are as follows:
 For Allen Fitercraft, a Minister, and Sarah B., his wife, a member of Chester Monthly, held at Chester, Penna, the twenty-first of Sixth Month, 1892.
 For Isaac Hicks, a Minister from Westbury Monthly Meeting, Long Island, N. Y., held the nineteenth of Tenth Month, 1892.
 For Levi L. Benson, a Minister from Stillwater Monthly Meeting, held at Richland, Ohio, the twentieth of Eighth Month, 1892, and endorsed by Stillwater Quarterly Meeting, held at Plainfield, Ohio, the twenty-fifth of Eighth Month, 1892.
 Expression of approbation and welcome to our visiting brethren were given forth; also to those who are meeting with us at this time, but who are without minutes from the meetings to which they belong. These certificates as read, were forwarded to Women's Branch.
8. Epistles from the six Yearly Meetings of our Branch of the Society were submitted to the Meeting and those received from the Yearly Meetings of Philadelphia, New York, Genesee, and Illinois, were read at this session.

Minutes of Visiting Friends

1892. These acceptable evidences of brotherly love from our corresponding Yearly Meetings, so far as now read, show an awakening amongst their membership, and an increase of spiritual life in those who are of our household of faith, though residing in distant parts of our common country, and the neighboring province across the border.
- The reading and consideration of the remaining Epistles were deferred to another session.

9. The following named were now appointed as a Special Committee to prepare and submit to a future session an appropriate form of reply to the several Epistles received from those Yearly Meetings assembling in separate session, viz: Philadelphia, New York, and Indiana:

Committee to Reply to Epistles	William Wood,	Phineas J. Nichols,	Marlington Hoopes,
	Seneca P. Broomell,	Timon Spicer,	St. Haviland Hull,
	Obed J. Piepoint,	William King,	John Thomas,
	Jeremiah J. Starr,	Triam Grist,	Thomas E. Taylor,
		Elisha M. Davis,

This Committee is directed to meet jointly with a Committee of Women's Branch - should they take concurrent action herein - and produce a draft of a reply to the Yearly Meetings of Genesee, Ohio, and Illinois, they now meeting in joint session.

10. The Representatives now in attendance upon the services of this Meeting, are directed to meet at the close of this session and select and nominate to the ensuing session a Friend to serve this Meeting as clerk, and also one for Assistant clerk, the ensuing year.

Then adjourned to meet at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Second day Afternoon.

The Meeting re-assembled at 3 o'clock.

11. Appoint-ment of Clerks. Marlington Hoopes, from the Representatives, reported that they had conferred together as directed, at the close of the morning session, and were united in proposing the name of Edward Stable, Jr., as clerk, and Thomas C. Matthews,
