

1892

To the Yearly Meeting now sitting:

The Committee continued last year to visit Subordinate Meetings have again to report, that they have not been able to engage in much labor as indicated by their minute of appointment. A few Meetings have been attended by individual members of the Committee. Although so little has been accomplished, owing to circumstances beyond our control, yet the interest in the work for which we were appointed continues unabated.

The amount appropriated last year for the use of the Committee has not been drawn upon.

Signed on behalf of the Committee,

Leuca P. Broomell,

Baltimore, 11th mo, 2nd, 1892.

Mary E. Moore.

After a full consideration of the work done by this Committee in the past, and in view of the physical difficulties encountered in bringing forth more visible results the past year, but with a full appreciation of their labors in the past, the Committee, in compliance with the wishes of the members thereof, is now released from further stated service.

28. The Committee on Philanthropic Labor laid before the Meeting the following communication, to wit:
To Baltimore Yearly Meeting:

In accordance with the action ^{taken} at the recent meeting of the Philanthropic Union, suggesting the introduction of a Query on the subject of licensing the liquor traffic, into the discipline, the Committee on Philanthropic Labor would call attention of the Yearly Meeting to the importance of the matter.

On behalf of the Committee,

O. Edward Gannoy, Chairman.

Ella Sutton, Secretary.

The important subject brought before us by this communication from the Committee, being intimately associated with the leading subject matter of the Fourth Query, it was decided to defer its consideration to our next session, or to such time as the Meeting may be occupied with the consideration of the answer to this Query.
