Epistles from the six Yearly Meetings with which we correspond, were laid before the Meeting and those from Philadelphia, New York, Genesee and Ohio, were read at this session.

These evidences of fraternal regard, bringing before us the moral and spiritual condition of the members of those Yearly Meetings, that are one in faith and belief with us, exhibit a most gratifying report of labor along the various lines of practical Christian work, in which we are severally or jointly engaged.

The reading and consideration of the Epistles from Indiana, and Illinois was deferred to a future session.
