2d Day.

We believe those in the practice of the gift in the ministry are exercised in waiting for Divine ability.

3d Day.

We are in unity one with another and with the Meetings to which we belong, are concerned for the advancement of Truth, and the support of our Discipline.

4th Day.

We endeavor to be exemplary in uprightness, temperance and moderation, and to have a care to educate our families in plainness and simplicity.

The Representatives to the last Quarterly reported they all attended

The Meeting then adjourned

Enoch S. Janney.
Clerk.

* A Concern arose in this meeting looking to a change in our Book of Disciplines. And after deliberation we are united in recommending the propriety of the following change.

Add to paragraph 12 page 82 of the Article on "Ministers and Elders" after the words: Quarterly Meeting, the following, "Unless the Monthly Meeting should conclude that to great inconvenience would result from his waiting for the Quarterly Meeting" so that the Article when read.

12th When any Minister is concerned to make a religious visit, either within or beyond the limits of the Yearly Meeting, and has obtained a Certificate for that purpose, it must also be laid before the Quarterly Meeting (unless the Monthly Meeting should conclude that to great inconvenience would result from his waiting for the Quarterly Meeting) and if the concern is concurred with an endorsement must be entered on the Certificate
