

On the 10th of October I left on behalf of representatives to our last monthly meeting reported she attended.

The following address was read in this meeting.
 The following address was given with pl. representing the condition of our membership at this time.
 and was directed to be forwarded to the ensuing monthly meeting. Messrs R. Britchford and Thomas D. Matthews were appointed our representatives to the same.

They were requested to re-hire their attendances.
Advised to Queens

All our meetings have been duly attended; Friends maintain a serene and orderly deportment therein; are greatly punctual in assembling. There had been an increase in attendance.

Friend maintain love towards each other keep our Christian profession. Tale-bearing and detrac-tion are discouraged. No differences known to disturb our members.

First Friends observe simplicity and in their apparel; they advise their children and under their care to the same; They are mostly compelled to encourage plain honest speech, gentle dignity and deportment. They guard them against crime, fornication and pernicious literature; and endeavor to supply that which is profitable. They encourage frequent reading of the Scriptures Fourth They.

Friends are clear of giving aid in the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors at a barage or in the preparation of food. They avoid places where such liquors are sold, and place of demoralizing tendency. They discourage the cultivation, use or sale of tobacco and other narcotics.

Fifth Query.

Some of our bumble bees appear to require air at the fifth stage.

Friends maintain a faithful testimony in favor of a free Gospel Ministry resting upon Divine Qualification.

Gerardus Erasmus

Irish friends are careful to live within their income. And to avoid pinching themselves in